VOLUME CVI.---NO 131. ALEXANDRIA, VA., SATURDAY EVENING, JUNE 3, 1905. PRICE 2 CENTS.

Let go or die. That's the alternative of the shipwrecked man with the money bags. A great many people have a like alternative before them. Business men come to a point where the doctor tells them that they must "let go or die." Probably he advised a sea voyage or mountain air. There's an obstinate cough that won't be shaken off. The lungs are weak and perhaps bleeding. There is emaciation and other symptoms of disease, which if unskilfully or improperly treated terminate in consumption.

Thousands of men and women in a like condition have found complete healing by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.

"It gives me pleasure to send you this testimonial so that some other poor sufferer may be saved, as I was by Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery," writes Geo. A. Thompson, of Sheldon Ave., Chatham, Ont., Canada. "I had a cough for years, expectorated a great deal, and was slowly failing. Was losing flesh every day. Lost in weight from 150 pounds down to 128. My flesh got soft and I had no strength. Did not say anything to any one but made up my mind that the end was not far off. One day my wife was reading in the 'Common Sense Medical Adviser' about Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and I said, that sounds more like common sense than anything else that I had heard. I at once bought a bottle of your famous remedy and before I had taken half of one bottle I felt better. Took thirteen bottles and it made a new man of me. I gained sixteen pounds and never have had a cough since. I feel splendid and give all the credit to your medicine."

Given away. The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. The book contains 1008 pages, over 700 illustrations and several colored plates. Send 21 one-cent stamps for the paper-bound book, or 31 stamps for the cloth bound. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Pierce's Pleasant Pellets

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure bad, foul stomach and constipation and so help to cure nearly every disease of mankind. They regulate, tone up and invigorate Stomach, Liver and Bowels.

TO KILL THE DANDRUFF GERM.

Is the Only Possible Way of Having An Effective Cure.

If you see a woman or a man with luxuriant glossy hair, you may be sure neither has dandruff to amount to anything. In nearly every case where women and men have thin brittle hair, they owe it to dandruff. There are hundreds of preparations that "claim" to cure dandruff, but not one but Newbro's Herpicide tells you that dandruff is the result of a germ burrowing into the scalp, and that permanent cure of dandruff and its consequent falling and baldness, can only be had by killing the germ; and there is no other preparation that will destroy that germ but Newbro's Herpicide. "Destroy the cause, and you remove the effect." Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

are caused by Indigestion. If you eat a little too much, or if you are subject to attacks of Indigestion, you have no doubt had shortness of breath, rapid heart beats, heartburn or palpitation of the heart.

Indigestion causes the stomach to expand—swell, and puff up against the heart. This crowds the heart and interferes with its action, and in the course of time the heart becomes diseased.

Kodol
Dyspepsia Cure

digests what you eat, takes the strain off of the heart, and contributes nourishment, strength and health to every organ of the body. Cures Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Sour Stomach. Inflammation of the mucous membranes lining the Stomach and Digestive Tract, Nervous Dyspepsia and Catarrh of the Stomach.

After eating, my food would distress me by making my heart palpitate and I would become very weak. Finally I got a bottle of Kodol and it gave me immediate relief. After using a few bottles I am cured.
MRS. LORING NICHOLS, Penn Yan, N. Y.

I had stomach trouble and was in a bad state as I had heart trouble with it. I took Kodol Dyspepsia Cure for about four months and it cured me.

CAUSES OF DEFEAT.

The cardinal causes of Rojestvensky's defeat have been the subject of general discussion in Tokio. One Japanese expert gives the following analysis:

First, an imperfect reconnoissance and incomplete, faulty and misleading intelligence.

"Second, an imperfect battle formation, which indicated that Rojestvensky did not expect to meet Togo off Tsushima.

"Third, the weather, the direction of the wind and the sunlight were unfavorable to the Russians, Togo having the sun behind him and firing with the wind, while the Russians had the sunlight in their eyes and fired against the wind.

"Fourth, the Russians wasted their ammunition and finally ran short. It is believed that the surrender of Nebogatoff was necessary, because his ammunition had been expended.

"Fifth, the marked inferiority of the Russian gunnery."

Feeling in the Russian admiralty against Rear Admiral Nebogatoff continues to run high, the majority of the naval authorities being deaf to the appeals of the few who insist that the admiral's action in surrendering his warships should not be condemned until the circumstances become fully known. The majority says they could forgive anything but surrender, and point to the precedent set in the case of the Russian warship Raphael, which in 1829, during the Russo-Turkish war, struck its colors to three Turkish ships which surrounded it.

Nicholas I meted out a terrible punishment to the officers and crew of the Raphael, ordering that all of them should be shot after their exchange, and directing that if the ship should ever be recaptured its infamous history should be blotted out by the total destruction of the vessel. The Raphael, strange to say, was recaptured twenty-four years later at Sinope, during the Crimean war, a son of the captain who surrendered her taking part in the battle, and to this son fell the task of executing the dead Emperor's orders to destroy her.

Many naval authorities declare that the Czar should reserve the same fate for Admiral Nebogatoff.

That mutiny, treachery and cowardice prevailed on some of the Russian warships during the recent engagement in the sea of Japan now seems certain, as information concerning the charge comes from various sources.

A horrible story is in circulation in Tokio concerning the wounded on the Orel. It is said that at the opening of the fight 300 men were killed and wounded, and that the groans and shrieks of the wounded exercised so harmful an effect that it was decided to throw the mortally wounded into the sea.

One hundred and forty it is said, were thrown overboard. Those slightly wounded were then fastened to the mast to prevent their interference with the fighting of the ship.

Ugly stories are circulating in St. Petersburg of the demoralization, and even treachery, of the crews of several of the Russian ships during the battle, and it is even said that the crew of the battleship Orel bound their officers and hoisted the white flag.

The origin of these stories which are discredited by naval men in St. Petersburg cannot be traced, as the only direct information comes from Japan, but doubtless they are based on the trouble among the crew of the Orel before her departure for the far East.

She was sunk at her dock before she left Cronstadt, and later at Libau the crew were mutinous.

All censorship is now removed from foreign dispatches, and the people are appalled at the horrible stories of slaughter on board the Russian ships. The admiralty has not yet been able to establish even approximately from the foreign advices the loss of men, but as the ships were over rather than undermanned, the total will be greater than the ordinary complement of the vessels would indicate, and probably will exceed 10,000, if only about 4,000 were saved.

With the destruction of Russia's naval power interest is returning to military operations on land. Togo's victory tremendously alters the military situation and removes all limits of offensive operations against Russia's maritime provinces It is now possible to effectively close Vladivostok, seize Sakhalin, the mouth of the Amur river, Kamtchatka and any point between the Tumen river and the Arctic circle the Japanese may desire.

A foreign military observer in discussing the question says:

"Togo's victory may drive Russia away from the Pacific coast of Asia. Japan now has a free hand in Russia's maritime provinces, and her offensive capability is limited. Nothing bars the way except the Russian force at Vladivostok, whose speedy isolation is possible. The Amur river is open to the Japanese and Russia's defensive capability is now entirely limited to the capacity of the Chinese.

Alexandria Gazette
SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

SATURDAY EVENING, JUNE 3, 1905.

STATISTICS show that desertions from battleships in the last few years have been occurring at a surprising rate. In almost every port warships touch sailors are unlawfully quitting the service. Within the last two years the crews of at least two American warships have been reported in a mutinous state. Sailors who do not desert or mutiny grumble openly whenever they get a chance on land to air their grievances. Dissatisfied sailors appear to be the rule instead of the exception. The sailors claim that that they have a well defined list of grievances and believe they know how the service could be improved enough to reduce the present surprising proportion of desertions to a minimum. Stated in the order of importance in which these grievances appear in the eyes of the sailors, the list is as follows: Bad grub; the uniform question; excessive punishment for minor offences; arbitrary denial of shore leave; lack of sympathy between officers and men; denial of grog; overwork. Per contra, at the Navy Department it is held that the naval enlisted force enjoys many advantages, and a comparison of the American with foreign navies cannot help being favorable to the United States service. There are such advantages to the men as are expressed in these qualities: The best fed navy in the world; the best clad navy in the world; the best paid navy in the world; more diversion allowed than in any other navy in the world; greater opportunities for young men than in any other navy in the world. Notwithstanding which the spirit of dissatisfaction in the navy is rife and the desertions continue.

BECAUSE of the many distressing accidents which have resulted from the use of explosives on the Fourth of July the Board of Police Commissioners of Baltimore is determined that this year the law against them shall be enforced more rigidly than it has ever been enforced before. Not only will the smallest firecrackers be under the ban, but the dealers will be notified ahead of time that their use is prohibited, so it is expected that none will be on sale in any of the stores. The authorities of Alexandria have year after year had their attention called to the fact that laws exist on the statute books forbidding the sale of all explosives in the way of firecrackers within the city limits, but, strange as it may seem, they are never enforced. Similar State laws are also in existence. It is hoped that either the Mayor, Police Board or Chief of Police may follow the example set in the monumental city before the advent of the Fourth of July. Last Christmas horrid explosives tortured many in certain portions of Alexandria, to say nothing of the danger incurred by passersby.

THE DISCOVERY has been made by the sealer of weights and measures in Camden, N. J., that unscrupulous dealers who supply poor people with coal which is paid for in installments, have been outrageously cheating their unsuspecting customers by giving short weight. The official says that the price of the fuel is not only higher than would be charged otherwise, but that the short weight brings it to even a higher figure and that the customers who can least afford to buy coal are paying the topmost figure for it. He has secured information which, he says, will lead to the arrest of several of those who have been guilty of the practice. The poor have an up-hill road under ordinary circumstances. It is more difficult when the cold blasts of winter make it necessary to procure fuel and those who are so heartless as to take advantage of their poverty and rob them should receive the full penalty of the law.

A MAN in Chattanooga was recently fined $20 for snoring in church, the magistrate having held that the act constituted a breach of the peace. The man was arrested on the charge of the pastor, who testified that the noise disturbed the congregation. If fines for such offenses were made general and the money turned into the church coffers, many church festivals might be dispensed with.

EMPLOYEES of the First National Bank of Milwaukee have been ordered to give the officials their photographs and submit to certain measurements for the purpose of identification. This is not surprising in view of the many defalcations now reported among bank employees.

Killed by Hurricane.

Durban, Natal, June 3.—The list of casualties in the great hurricane which swept over this section of the country has been greatly increased, showing that much more damage was caused than was reported at first. The death roll now contains the names of fifty Europeans and 500 Indians. The city is suffering from a water famine, to add to its troubles, as the water mains have burst.

There is a rumor that Secretary of Interior Hitchcock contemplates resigning.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, D. C., June 3.

The District Attorney, Morgan H. Beach, today gave notice that he would call the case of A. A. Lipscomb, a prominent Washington lawyer, to trial at the end of the postoffice cases, which will consume most of next week. Attorney Lipscomb was indicted jointly with Thomas Fields for the alleged embezzlement of over $16,000 of the funds of the defunct Washington Beneficial Endowment Association. A severance in favor of Lipscomb was granted in the case, Fields going to trial on four of the charges in the indictment. He was convicted only on one charge. A motion for a new trial has been asked for.

Senator Martin was in the city yesterday on his way to Winchester to attend a wedding and while here met many of his friends. In conversation he said he did not care to discuss the campaign, but that he was satisfied with the outlook. Congressman Swanson was also in the city yesterday and left this morning for Manassas to speak at the Confederate memorial services there today. He is in excellent spirits and says he feels perfectly confident of securing the nomination for governor.

Attorney General Moody and Assistant Attorney General Day, the latter being in charge of trust investigations and prosecutions, called on President Roosevelt today for a conference about various matters pertaining to Judge Day's particular line.

Secretary Taft brought Minister Dawson, of Santo Domingo, to the White House this morning. The minister with the President discussed the Santo Domingo situation in all its details.

President Roosevelt was made the recipient today of a gift from the city of Sendai, Japan, consisting of an ancient sword and two Japanese flags, as a token of Japanese gratitude for the christianizing influence of the American missionaries as well as for American sympathy with Japan in the war with Russia. The presentation was made through Rev. D. B. Schnader, a former Pennsylvanian, who is the senior missionary of the Reformed Church in Japan, and Professor Morimotu, of Sendai, a Christian Japanese student. The other members of the party consisted of Secretary Bartholomew, of the foreign missions board; Treasurer J. L. Lemberger and Dr. and Mrs. Weber, of Baltimore. Rev. J. H. Schick, of the President's church, presented the other churchmen to the Chief Executive.

Cardinal Raps Suffragists.

The woman who wants to vote was soundly scored by Cardinal Gibbons in Washington yesterday in an address to the graduating class of 1905, of Trinity College, an institution for the higher education of women there.

"Because we give our women a college education," he said, "it does not follow that we intend them to clamor for the prerogatives of men. Education of women means much; but it does not mean that they are to become like men. In the first place they could not be like men, because they are not fitted by nature to become so; and secondly the mannish rights for which many women are clamoring today would not contribute to the charm of women.

"A woman should be satisfied with her feminine privileges and not demand the rights of men. It seems improbable to me that there are women today who are willing to exchange their privileges for the rights of men. I earnestly hope that none of you women graduating in Washington today intend to use your 'college education' for the purpose of entering the ranks of the suffragists. The woman who votes, the woman who enters the arena of politics, must suffer the penalty. She will lose some of her gentility and refinement. You cannot be in the thick of battle without getting some of the dust. How can the delicate soul of a woman go into the midst of corruption and wrangling of political life without getting smirched?"

Charles J. Bonaparte, grandnephew of Napoleon the First, and the new Secretary of the Navy made an address on "Woman as a College Graduate."

Peace Prospects.

The visit of Count Cassini yesterday to the White House was not productive of any further steps toward peace between Russia and Japan. It did, however, result in a more definite understanding along certain lines. There was an earnest statement from the President for peace, and his sentiments will be conveyed to Tsarkoe-Selo.

But when the Czar of all the Russians is prepared to ask for the olive branch, the request will probably not be by the good offices of President Roosevelt. Kaiser Wilhelm, whose leanings toward his big neighbor to the north have been appreciated, will, it is expected, be the intermediary.

Obvious reasons are offered for such a cause. They were naturally not stated fully to the President. Ambassador Cassini is too diplomatic a man for that. But it is none the less a fact that the sentiment of a large portion of Americans has been decidedly friendly to the Japanese. Mr. Roosevelt has observed the strictest neutrality and so have the officials of his administration. At the same time, official Russia has been very bitter over the trend of sentiment in the United States. Neither the Czar nor his advisers would welcome the good offices of the United States under such circumstances. They would not be assured of such a friendly attitude in such movements as would be the case if the German ruler played the leading part.

Burning of a Theater.

One of the most exciting and spectacular fires that has visited Pittsburg, Pa., in recent yearss broke out in the Avenue Theater shortly before 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon and before it was subdued had completely destroyed the Avenue Theater and partially wrecked the Grand Opera House adjoining, but fortunately no panic resulted and no lives were lost. The loss will reach $150,000, fully insured. The cause of the fire is believed to be traceable to crossed electric wires. The Avenue Theater was probably the oldest show house in Pittsburg, and recently had been used for vaudeville. The house was about half filled, but through the prompt and systematic work of the employes the audience was gotten out without the semblance of a panic; indeed, the majority did not know there was a fire until they had reached the street. Several women fainted when they came to realize what might have happened. The Avenue Theater building was erected in the 50's, and was valued a $75,000. It is completely ruined. The damage to the Grand Opera House, which was caused mostly by water, will represent probably $25,000.

Battling Nelson, of Chicago, was outfought in six rounds last night in Baltimore by Kid Sullivan, Washington. Referee Rocap, decided the contest a draw.

The Cabinet yesterday decided that the body of John Paul Jones should be transferred direct from France to its last retiring-place at Annapolis, and should not lie in state in cities making this request.

By a combination of the forces of President Alexander and Vice Presidents Hyde and Tarbell the report of the Frick committee, which investigated the affairs of the Equitable Life Assurance Society, was rejected by the directors at a meeting in New York yesterday. The report recommended the withdrawal of Messrs. Alexander, Hyde and Tarbell from their positions. Mr. Frick resigned as a director.

Passengers who were on board the little French steamer Pre Patria, which was wrecked near Louisburg, a few days ago, while bound from St. Pierre Miquelon, for this port arrived at Sydney N. S. today. They state that the scenes in St. Pierre following the announcement of the foundering of the fishing bark Cousins Rennis with nearly 200 people, were heartbreaking as over one half of the victims leave destitute families at St. Pierre.

TERRIBLE SCENES.

The Tokio correspondent of the London Daily Express sends a story of the recent naval battle told by an officer of the battleship Borodino, who is now at Sasebo. The officer says:

"Admiral Rojestvensky came on board early in the battle and directed the fighting from the Borodino's bridge. At 3 o'clock the Japanese battleships Shikishima and Fuji opened every gun upon us. A projectile struck the forward barbette, in which I had charge of a 12-inch gun, and this stunned all of us.

"I groped out of the smoke-filled barbette to the deck and found there a rain of projectiles. Dozens of men were lying dead or wounded at every turn. I returned to the barbette, but was only able to fire two rounds when two projectiles struck us simultaneously, wrecking the barbette, disabling both the 12-inch guns and killing 18 officers and men."

The officer proceeds to describe how the Borodino now became a veritable shambles, successive shells destroying the steering gear and ammunition hoists, so that the shells had to be carried by hand. Admiral Rojestvensky was wounded and transferred to a destroyer, and as the destroyer left she was assailed by a hail of small-arm ammunition.

"It was now 4 o'clock," the officer continued. "The Borodino had been repeatedly struck in the hull and was settling, with no hope of saving her.

"The Japanese had broken our battle formation and were closing in, concentrating their fire on our fighting tops, of whose crews hardly one escaped. Fire had now broken out in several places, adding to the horror of our situation, and it was decided to withdraw from the firing line for the purpose of repairing our steering gear. But we were surrounded by eight Japanese ships and bombarded on every side. We still fought desperately with our after 12-inch guns and what was left of our smaller guns and with about half our complement of men. But the Borodino sank lower and lower. Toward evening, after we had lost 400 men, we noticed two Japanese destroyers coming toward us. We sank one with a well-directed shell. The other launched a torpedo which missed us. All the men in the engine rooms were driven on deck by the flames. Finally a Japanese torpedo flotilla bore down upon us and an explosion caused the Borodino to turn turtle. I, with forty others, was rescued from the sea by the Japanese armored cruiser Kasuga and was transferred to the shore."

The Mojo (Japan) correspondent of the London Daily Telegraph gives a story told by Captain Rojinoff, commander of the Russian cruiser Admiral Nakhimoff. The Captain says:

"We chose the shortest route to Vladivostok, passing a certain strait. We were unhappily enticed by the Japanese fleet and were completely surrounded.

"Our position was hopeless from the beginning of the battle. We had, indeed, fallen into a bitter trap. It was cruel, moreover, for the Japanese selected the engine room of my ship as a target. A torpedo went straight through my vessel and we lost our fighting power and were unable to move either way."

"We launched the boats and embarked 600 of the crew, who were rescued by the Japanese. I, with the navigating officer, determined to share the fate of our ship, which sank. We two were drawn underneath by the suction, whirled about and lost our breath.

"We forgot everything, but fortunately were picked up by the Japanese fishermen. We had intended to die and floated about in the water, as it seemed, for hours, watching the scene created by the explosion of Japanese shells."

Bonaparte Dazed Reformers.

Politicians of all shades in Baltimore, including reformers, are much surprised at Mr. Bonaparte's acceptance of the office of Secretary of the Navy. Many of them make six months the limit of his holding office. Roger W. Cull, co-worker with Mr. Bonaparte in the Reform League, said: "The appointment will be a delight to every one possessing a sense of humor. It is a touch of the Rooseveltian nature which will make the whole world grin. Both the President and Mr. Bonaparte are imperialists, which, in connection with the navy, may be said to be of the first water. The President, however, will likely find in Mr. Bonaparte certain unworkable qualities which may lead to friction between them, as it is certain to produce friction with the politicians."

A telegram from Bucharest, the capital of Roumania, says that thirty-five soldiers of the garrison at Pitescht were killed while at target practice today by the accidental use of ball cartridges.

Mrs. Louise Fletcher Greene, of Rappahannock, has been appointed to represent the Valley of Virginia at the reunion of Confederate veterans to be held in Louisville this month. She has selected Miss Brucie Funkhouser, of Strasburg, as her maid of honor.

After a trial lasting a week, a Clarke county jury, yesterday awarded Mrs. McDonald a verdict for $5,000 damages against the Norfolk and Western Railway Company for the death of her husband last autumn. He was struck on the head with a hook attached to a chain on a car and killed. Notice of appeal to the Supreme Court was given by the defendant company.

Rojestvensky Their Mark.

The following dispatch has been received by the London Daily Telegraph from Sasebo:

"Your correspondent has been able to obtain the following narrative of the circumstances under which Admiral Rojestvensky was captured:

"He was at first on board his flagship, the Kniaz Suvaoff. From the beginning of the battle on May 27 he fought with magnificent courage, but on May 28 his flagship became separated from the remainder of the fleet. There it was isolated, but kept on firing all its guns—one battleship against overwhelming odds. For a time she was the solitary target of the Japanese fleet. Shells swept her deck like a cyclone, and it was soon evident she must speedly sink. Therefore, the Admiral with eight of his staff officers, was removed to the destroyer Biedovy. All the while the Japanese continued to pour in their storm of shells. Rojestvensky, having fled from his flagship, was now the target of the combined fleet. The destroyer, now the Admiral's flagship, attempted to break away first pointing her head one way then another in her efforts to find a gap in the ring of ships and guns. The Japanese destroyer Sasinami advanced from the lines to meet the Admiral's destroyer, and she glided through the water pouring in a terrible and close fire. The Bledovy became disabled and was unable to use her steering gear, which had been rendered useless. It was then that Rojestvensky and his chief of staff were wounded again, and this time the Admiral was severely injured. The Bledovy was boarded by the crew of the Sasinami. The Japanese searched high and low and all the Russians on the Bledovy were made prisoners.

Admiral Rojestvensky was the last man to be discovered. He was found hiding in the bottom of the destroyer, bleeding freely from many wounds."

The Moroccan Trouble.

Although official confirmation is withheld, it is now generally accepted in Paris that the report from Tangier to the effect that the Sultan of Morocco had declined the French proposals for the reform of Morocco, unless approved by an international conference, was correct. This is widely commented upon as amounting to a check, if not a failure of the French mission sent to Fez, as well as a check to the entire French policy in Morocco. Only the absorbing attention given to King Alfonso prevents a renewal of the storm of protest against Germany, as an international conference would be considered to be the result of the influence of Count von Tattenbach-Ashold (head of the German mission to Fez) with the Sultan.

The French statesmen continue to rely on Great Britain, Italy, and Spain refusing to join the proposed conference, which, with the refusal of France and Russia, and possibly the indifference of the United States, would leave the conference without any membership except Germany.

However, it is recognized that even without an international conference the Sultan's refusal to agree to the reforms proposed by France continues the old status quo which France sought to terminate.

The situation over Morocco is viewed with no little concern in diplomatic circles in London. Indirectly the Sultan's refusal to accept the French proposals is regarded as a rebuff to Great Britain, but it is believed that rather than risk further complications France will be likely to join the other powers in a conference at Fez, and Great Britain will follow suit. Should France decline to enter the conference Great Britain likewise will decline in which event serious difficulty may ensue.

Citizens' Industrial Association

D. M. Parry yesterday resigned and C. W. Post was elected to the presidency of the National Citizens' Industrial Association of America, at a meeting of the executive committee in Chicago. This action was taken at the request of Mr. Parry, who wished to be relieved of the work.

Following his appointment to the presidency, Mr. Post named Mr. James A. Emery, of San Francisco, as secretary of the association, the headquarters of which will be in New York. The association, Mr. Post declared, would at once begin to organize citizens' associations in every city and village of America. "These local branches," said Mr. Post, "will mass the citizens for the protection of their business interests, to insure the individual personal liberty of each person against the overt acts of labor unions, and to guarantee the continuous operation of the industries of the country."

Today's Telegraphic News

Will Continue the War.

St. Petersburg, June 3.—The correspondent of the Publishers Press is informed on excellent authority that a majority of the council of war holds to the opinion that it is better to spend millions to keep up the present war rather than to pay the indemnity which it is believed Japan is sure to demand, and the price of peace. Public opinion generally favors a cessation of hostilities but the chances of peace seem to be weak.

St. Petersburg, June 3.—According to the information received by the admiralty, it is probable that the blockade of Vladivostok, which in all probability will be followed by a land siege of the fortress, will commence in the very near future. News has been received that the Japanese flotilla has already started to close the harbor and establish the blockade. It is expected that the investment by the land forces, which has been hinted at for some time, will soon follow the establishment of the blockade. Vladivostok, according to all the reports which have been made to the War Office, is well prepared to stand a siege for months and it is probable that a second Port Arthur campaign will follow any attempt by the Japanese to reduce the fortress.

Hanlon Victorious.

San Francisco, June 3.—Eddie Hanlon won the decision last night at the end of the twentieth round, with young Corbett, in one of the fiercest fights ever seen on the Pacific coast. Corbett looked in fine condition at the start, but was tender all around the stomach from the terrible punishment given him a few weeks ago by Battling Nelson. He even covered with his gloves to ward off the stomach blows of Hanlon. The latter, on the contrary, put up the hardest fight of his life. In the eleventh round Corbett gave him a left arm jolt that seemed to have him out, but he pulled out the round, took terrible punishment in the next three rounds, marvelously regained his strength and in the last three rounds had things all his own way. In the sixth round Corbett gave Hanlon a stiff right handed jolt on the jaw. Eddie took the count of nine and went to his corner looking like a beaten man. Soon after he freshened up and finished with good wind and apparently fresh. Corbett was enraged by the decision, and rushed at Referee Homan, hitting him in the face. He declares he was robbed.

Alfonso in Paris.

Paris, June 3.—King Alfonso again put in a busy day seeing the sights of Paris and enjoying the military reviews which have been arranged for his entertainment. Accompanied by President Loubet, Alfonso this morning went to Vincennes, where the troops from Paris and the military garrison at that place were reviewed by General Dessirer, the military governor. The President and Alfonso first rode past the entire division of troops which were drawn up along the road. The line extended for four miles, the troops being arranged in battle array. As the two rulers passed the bands played the Spanish and French national anthems. After this inspection of the soldiers, the King and President ascended a reviewing stand, where they were surrounded by many government authorities, military officials and notables. All the troops defiled past the stand. The review ended with charges by the cavalry and artillery forces.

Missing Yacht.

Southampton, June 3.—Nothing has been heard yet of the American yacht Apache, owned by Edmund Randolph, which started in the Kaiser's cup race. While some uneasiness is felt for her safety, yachtsmen are not ready to believe, however, that disaster has overtaken the boat. It is pointed out that the Apache is an old boat, and could not be expected to make very good time, while the passage of the other yachts was a wonderful performance.

New York, June 3.—Friends of Edmund Randolph, owner of the bark-rigged auxiliary Apache, which sailed from here on May 17, in the race for the Kaiser's cup, are beginning to be anxious for her safety.

Hoch Sentenced to be Hanged.

Chicago, June 3.—Johann Hoch was this afternoon sentenced to be hanged June 23. He made a speech to the court after sentence had been pronounced, stating that he held no ill will against any of those who had prosecuted him, and that he was ready to die. He said he did not doubt that Mrs. Marie Welcker Hoch, his wife, had been murdered, but that he did not do it. He thanked the court for sentencing him to death.

Suicide of a Drummer.

Reading, Pa., June 3.—L. H. Piggott, a drummer, address unknown, cut his throat with a knife at a hotel here this morning, then climbed out on the fire escape from his fourth floor room and defied doctors and police sent to his aid. In running from them he fell thirty feet from one roof to another. He was taken to a hospital and will probably die. He is about 35 years old.

Must Swear Fealty.

St. Petersburg, June 3.—Czar Nicholas, in order to prevent men who are not loyal to the government from being appointed to administrative offices, and to weed out of the service men who are believed to be connected with the various secret societies which are working for reforms in Russia, has directed that in the future all officers and soldiers must be required to take an oath of fealty.

Ovation to the Duchess Cecilie

Schwerin, Germany, June 3.—The Duchess Cecilie was given a great ovation when she left here today in a special train for Berlin where she makes her formal entry this afternoon into the city of her future residence as the bride-to-be of the Crown Prince of Germany. State officials were present to bid her good by, and there was a great popular demonstration in her honor. The special train in which she travelled was of blue and gold and was beautifully decorated with garlands of roses, myrtle and wreaths. The Kaiser has sent a distinguished party to meet Cecilie at Wittenberg, and the officials will act as an escort accompanying her to Berlin. Reports received here show that large and enthusiastic crowds had assembled at every station along the route to cheer the future empress and her progress across the country resembled a triumphal journey.

Berlin, June 3,—Duchess Cecilie of Mecklenburg-Schwerin, the affianced bride of the Crown Prince of Germany, arrived in Berlin this afternoon from Schwerin. Her brother, the Grand Duke Frederick, ruler of Mecklenburg Schwerin, arrived on another train. As Cecilie emerged from the saloon car she was greeted by the Kaiser, who kissed her on both cheeks. He also kissed the hand of Anastasia. The Crown Prince kissed the hands of Cecilie and her mother. The party at once drove to the Bellevue Castle, where the Empress received Cecilie. She kissed her future daughter-in-law on both cheeks in welcoming her. Lunch was served immediately, the party being limited to the members of the royal familes of Prussia and Mecklenburg. After lunch the Emperor and Empress and other members of the royal party returned to the imperial palace, leaving Cecilie to rest and prepare for her entry this afternoon.

Berlin, June 3.—Duchess Cecilia, of Macklenburg-Schwerin, who in three days time will be elevated from the position of a poor minor German princess, to that of the consort of the Crown Prince of the German Empire, made her State entrance into Berlin this afternoon. The young 19-year-old girl was given a remarkable welcome by the people of Berlin. The Kaiser, himself, was entirely a secondary figure in today's pagent, which was a woman's day almost from first to last.

The route from Bellevue Castle to the royal palace was lined with 6,000 school children. Thousands of members of various guilds and semi-military organizations also formed along the line. Early in the day the guilds assembled at their respective meeting places, and headed by bands and with banners and flags flying, marched to the respective positions assigned to them.

Some of the Guild members wore mediaeval costumes of variegated colors, but the majority were dressed in silk hats, dress suits, white ties and patent leather shoes. Members of the Fishermen's Guild carried a silk woven net. Some members were armed with harpoons, while others carried hooks and lines, stuffed dolphins, or models of the various types of fishing vessels. The members carried emblems of their trade. By noon every available foot of space between the two castles was densely packed and the crowd numbered hundreds of thousands. The heat was terrific.

Hundreds fainted and dropped from exhaustion. The ambulance corps had more than they could attend to. Early in the afternoon hundreds of police were sent to clear the route, but were utterly unable to accomplish anything, and troops were summoned for the purpose. The soldiers charged time and again the crowds before the way was finally cleared. Many spectators were injured, however, while this was done. About twenty minutes before the royal procession started from the Bellevue the Crown Prince left the castle where he had remained with his bride after her arrival. His royal highness marched in his uniform as infantry captain at the head of his company of the first regiment of the foot guards.

The Prince received a great ovation. On arriving at the Berlin palace, the Crown Prince stationed his company as a special guard of honor in the court yard of the palace, and then joined the Kaiser, who, with other royal guests, was awaiting the arriving of Cecilie.

The royal procession started from Bellevue at about five o'clock this afternoon. At the head of the cortege rode a mounted escort, then came three carriages containing court officials, then a company of body guards, headed by trumpeters. After the body guards was the royal coach, and following it were more soldiers, and other carriages containing ladies-in-waiting.

In the coach rode Cecilie, the German Empress, and Frau Tiele-Winkler, Cecilie's mistress of the robes, the first lady of the new court that will surround the Crown Princess and his bride.

Cecilie's dress is of the palest mousseline de soie, veiled with Brussels lace, and beautifully decorated. The embrodiered design is of ribbon and roses. The gown has a body of soft fluffy material draped in meteor roses with a long train of the same material, and is finished with gauze flounces. The dress is cut low and has short sleeves, leaving the arms bare.

The coach in which she rode is a magnificient vehicle, made of gold and glass, one of the finest royal carriages in Europe. The vehicle was drawn by eight superb black horses. After leaving the court yard of the Bellevue Castle, the procession marched along the Bellevue Allee, through the Tiergarten.

Arriving in front of the palace the Crown Prince and the Kaiser assisted the ladies to alight from the coach as the soldiers on guard presented arms and the regimental bands played. The royal party then ascended the palace staircase and entered the state apartments. In the rooms were all the members of the court, the representatives of all the principal countries throughout the world, the ladies of the empress' court and other distinguished guests.

Cecilia was presented to those present after which she was conducted into a suite of rooms in the palace set apart for her use. The guests then departed. Later the marriage contract was formally drawn up and signed. This evening a banquet in honor of the bride will take place in the palace.

Charges of Bribery.

Chicago, June 3.—The May grand jury which has been investigating the teamsters' strike and charges of bribery and graft in connection with it will adjourn today. Its long session has resulted in the obtaining of a vast amount of evidence concerning strike violence, assaults on strike breakers conspiracy and other charges made before it. In the county court building it is predicted that several indictments will be returned. What evidence has been brought out by the investigation will also be turned over to the June grand jury which is to meet June 10, when the investigation will be continued. The April grand jury indicted President Shea, of the teamsters, and eleven other labor leaders on charges of conspiracy.

The employers make a serious accusation against the strikers. It is claimed by a prominent representative of the employers, acting for his associates, that an offer was made May 12, to end the teamsters strike for $50,000. An intermediary who has recently left the city, was to receive $15,000 of this sum, $35,000 going to the unions. The money was ready as a trap, it is said but the intermediary and a certain person friendly to the labor interests who was "in on the deal," lost heart, and failed to appear. President Shea and labor men deny this allegation, just as strongly as business men have denied the charges which Shea and others have made against them.

In Mad Chase.

Millions rush in mad chase after health, from one extreme of faddism to another, when, if they would only eat good food, and keep their bowels regular with Dr. King's New Safe Pills their troubles would all pass away. Building Notes.

Mr. J. N. Robertson has secured the contract for the erection of a store building on the north side of King street, near Washington, for Dr. Smith, from plans prepared by Mr. H. P. Clark. Old gold mottled brick will be used in the structure, with Kentucky stone trimmings and prismatic glass will be employed in front work.

Mr. Robertson has also secured a contract for a dwelling for Messrs. L. and D. Ruben, to be erected also from plans prepared by Mr. Clark. The building will have a copper tile roof, mottled brick front, stone base and moulded brick window trimmings. The plans provide for curly birch interior trimmings, cabinet mantels and tiled vestibule and bath room.

Plans have also been prepared by Mr. Clark for alterations to the building recently purchased by Mr. J. F. Carlin.

Mr. J. D. Knight has been awarded the contract by Mrs. James Martin for the erection of a fine residence, with modern improvements, on the west side of Lee street, south of Wolfe.

Royal Arch Masons.

There was a well-attended and interesting meeting of Mount Vernon Chapter, Royal Arch Masons, last night, at which the following officers were elected: J. H. Trimyer, High Priest; H K. Field, King; J. E. W. Timberman, Scribe; W. Lewis Allen, Treasurer; K. Kemper, Secretary; W. H. Charles, Captain of the Host; S. P. Fisher, Principal Sojourner; Samuel W. Pitts, Royal Arch Captain; Claude E. Haines, Grand Master of the Third Veil; Frank Michelbach, 2d do., Wm. McA. Green, 1st do.; Rev. J. H S. Ewell, Chaplain; Wm. A. Moore, Tiler. The retiring High Priest, J. J. Green, was presented with a jewel as a token of esteem, the presentation speech being made by Past High Priest George E. Warfield in an appropriate manner. The recipient responded in fitting and impressive terms.

Fined for Selling Liquor.

Commonwealth's Attorney Crandall Mackey, of Alexandria county, and Deputies Howard Field, Howard Smoot, Jesse Thomas and Harry Collins, the county jailer, raided a place near Waterloo on Thursday afternoon, confiscated ten barrels and thirty cases of liquor, and placed under arrest two Italians. The men were taken before Justice Isaac Burrell, and Mr. Mackey conducted the prosecution. Justice Burrell fined the prisoners $250 each and sentenced them to three months in jail. It is understood that the case was reopened yesterday, however, and the fines reduced to $50 in each case and the jail sentence suspended.

New Car.

The parlor car "Palatine," recently received by the Washington, Alexandria and Mount Vernon Railway Company, made a trip to Mount Vernon yesterday evening. Superintendent Colvin and other officials of the road were aboard, together with a number of invited guests. The car is a model of magnificence, it being built upon the plan of a modern Pullman parlor car with a buffet and every other convenience. It attracted considerable attention as it passed through this city.

The Poor House.

The alms house property is now in its early summer garb. Everything is growing luxuriantly, and Superintendent Smith reports perfect tranquility among both inmates and prisoners. The railway company is soon to erect a fence on the east of the building to separate their tracks from the poor house property, and later a substantial bridge will be placed over the lane.

The Market.

There was another abundant display of country produce in market this morning. Prices remained at about the same figures as those of the past few weeks. Strawberries were still plentiful. Some were selling at 5 cents a box, but finer varieties brought 8 cents. A few cherries were on the benches. They sold at 10 cents a box. Many varieties of vegetables were offered.

Speaking Tonight.

As has been announced, Gov. Montague will speak at the Opera House tonight. The governor, who arrived here this afternoon, will be the guest of Capt. Albert Bryan, president of the Montague Club. The gallery will be reserved for ladies and music will be in attendance.

Ascension Day Celebration.

As has been announced in the Gazette, Old Dominion Commandery, No. 11, Knights Templar, will observe Ascension Day tomorrow by attending services at the Methodist Protestant Church at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, when Rev. J. H. S. Ewell, pastor of the church, will deliver a sermon.

The following will be the order of services. Quartette, "The King of Love My Shepherd Is," Misses A. and M. Vierkorn, Messrs. W. T. Wilkins and M. L. Edgar Carpenter; Gloria Patria, congregation; hymn, congregation; sermon, Rev. Sir J. H. S Ewell—"Our King, His Advancing Kingdom, and His Soldiers;" quartette, "Nearer My God to Thee," Misses A. and M. Vierkorn, Messrs. W. T. Wilkins and M. L. Dinwidde; prayer, Rev. Dr. W. F. Fisher; hymn, congregation; doxology, congregation; benediction.

Iron Workers Discharged.

The men employod in the iron work in connection with the railroad improvements near this city say the statement made yesterday to the effect that they fixed the scale of wages at $4.50 per day of eight hours was incorrect. They say that $4 per day is the standard wages and that the trouble originated in this way: The American Bridge Building Company when it employed the men made no objection to the amount paid, but were averse to the workmen forming a union. A delegate came down from Washington and insisted that as Alexandria was within eight miles of Washington the iron-workers should form a union. The delegate insisted on the union's demand and the organization was the result. The company, when this was learned, discharged the entire force and placed another gang of men at work, paying them the wages of the former employees—four dollars per day. It is said that the present workmen belong to unions.

Work on the new highway bridge was impeded today by a strike of the iron-workers, caused, it is said, by the employment of non-union engineers.

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Peter Findley and John Johnson, both colored, arrested by Officer Beach for disorderly conduct, were fined $5 each. Esther Johnson, also colored, arrested by the same officer on a similar charge, was dismissed.

Committee Meeting.

Three of the five members of the committee appointed by the City School Board on Thursday night last to endeavor to ascertain the authorship of a letter recently recived by the Superintendent threatening that officer and reflecting upon the clerk, met at the Superintendent's office this morning. The teachers had all been requested to meet in an adjoining room. The committee sent a notice to the teachers stating that they (the committee) would sit till 9:40 o'clock to receive any information on the subject of the letter, but there were no responses The committee then adjourned and the teachers, after disclaiming any knowledge of the letter, expressed indignation at even a suspicion resting upon them concerning the matter.

Electric Shock.

Mr. A. J. Gaines, section master of the Washington-Southern Railway, received a severe electric shock at the intersection of Cameron and Fayette streets yesterday evening. The accident was caused by a steel tape measure coming in contact with the trolley wire at that point while the distance from the ground to the wire was being ascertained. Mr. A. J. McMahon had previously made a measurement and ascertained the height, and Mr. Gaines was making another measurement when the accident occurred. Fortunately his injuries were not serious.

Arrested in Washington.

A young man, a resident of this city, was arrested in Washington yesterday charged with entering a residence in this city last Saturday night and taking therefrom a diamond ring. He was brought to this city and his case will be examined in the Police Court this evening.

Disappearance of Young Man

During the past two days rumors have been in circulation concerning the cashing by the Alexandria National Bank of a draft drawn by a young man upon a Boston house. Of course, the bank officers are reticent and are awaiting further developments before giving out information. The rumor, however, is to the effect that a young man who had been living in this city for the past two months a few days ago presented the draft at the teller's desk and received the money, said by the bank officers to be a comparatively small sum, but for a larger amount than he had been accustomed to drawing. When the cashier of the bank, who was absent at the time, returned he noticed the draft and, fearing that something might be wrong, set out to look for the young man, but the latter had left the city and has not since been heard from. The draft in the meantime has been sent on to Boston for collection and it may yet be all right, but if it should not be the officers say the bank in this city will not be the loser, as it was acting only for another party in collecting the draft.

The Coming Carnival.

The carnival, under the auspices of the Alexandria Light Infantry, will open on the old fair grounds next Monday. Among the features will be cages of wild animals. A report was in circulation last night to the effect that the Light Infantry was not interested in the carnival, and another that the show would not come to this city. These rumors were groundless. The week of carnival will begin Monday and, as is announced, under the auspices of the Light Infantry.

Railroad Sued.

Joseph M. Burr, of West Virginia, has brought suit in the United States Circuit Court in Richmond for $25,000 against the Washington-Southern Railway Company. Cuban Diarrhoea.

U. S. soldiers who served in Cuba during the Spanish war know what this disease is, and that ordinary remedies have little more effect than so much water. Cuban diarrhoea is almost as severe and dangerous as a mild attack of cholera. There is one remedy, however, that can always be depended upon as will be seen by the following certificate from Mrs. Minnie Jacobs of Houston, Texas: "I hereby certify Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy cured my husband of a severe attack of Cuban diarrhoea, which he brought home from Cuba. We had several doctors but they did him no good. One bottle of this remedy cured him, as our neighbors will testify. I than God for so valuable a medicine." For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Upholds Reading of Bible.

The Kentucky Court of Appeals in an exhaustive opinion by Judge Orear affirmed the Bracken Circuit Court in the case Thomas Hackett against the Board of Education of the Brookesville Graded School. The appellant, who is of the Roman Catholic faith and sent his children to public schools, instituted the proceedings by injunction to prevent the reading of the King James translation of the Bible and the singing of songs and prayer in the opening services of the common school. The court said: "If under the guise of public instruction children shonld be required to attend school where the worship of God was compulsory, it would seem to be within the prohibition of the Constitution on religious freedom. Appellant's children were not required to attend those exercises nor were they or others conscientiously opposed, required to participate in them. The Bible is not of itself a sectarian book and when used merely for reading in common schools, without note or comment by teachers, is not sectarian instruction, nor does the use of the Bible make the school house a house of religious worship."

Woman Held Off Wolf Pack.

Mrs. Marie Panches and two children were on their way from the Lucas ranch to Blaconia, Texas, Wednesday, when a pack of lobo wolves made an attack upon the horse and soon had that animal down. Mrs. Panches used the butt end of the buggy whip to defend herself and two children. Every time a wolf sprang at her or the little ones it was driven back by a well-directed blow. There were probably 30 wolves in the pack. The fight soon became an unequal one, and at the end of an hour Mrs. Panches was in an utmost exhausted condition. Just at the moment when weakness was about to overcome her, Hank Hendrix, who carries the United States mail, drove up and a few well-directed shots scattered the blood-thirsty pack. The woman had a piece of fresh meat in the buggy and it is supposed that the smell of it attracted the wolves and caused the attack to be made upon her.

Torture of a Preacher.

The story of the torture of Rev. O. D. Moore, pastor of the Baptist church, of Harpersville, N. Y., will interest you. He says: "I suffered agonies, because of a persistent cough, resulting from the grip. I had to sleep sitting up in bed. I tried many remedies, without relief, until I took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption Coughs and Colds, which entirely cured my cough, and saved me from consumption." A grand cure for diseased conditions of Throat and Lungs. At E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists; price 50c and $1.00, guaranteed. Trial bottle free.

Quality vs. Quantity.

Hard muscles and strong body do not depend on the quantity of food you eat, but on its perfect digestion and proper assimilation. When you take Kodol Dyspepsia Cure your system gets all the nourishment out of all the food you eat. It digests what you eat regardless of the condition of the stomach and conveys the nutrient properities to the blood and tissues. This builds up and strengthens the entire system. Kodol cures Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Belching, Sour Stomach, Weak Heart, etc. Sold by W. F. Creighton, 401 King street, and corner Queen and Patrick.

The Children's Favorite.

Found a Cure for Dyspepsia.

Mrs. S. Lindsay, of Fort William, Ontario, Canada, who was suffering quite a number of years from dyspepsia and great pains in the stomach, was advised by her druggist to take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. She did so and says, "I find that they have done me a great deal of good. I have never had any suffering since I began using them." If troubled with dyspepsia or indigestion why not take these Tablets, get well and stay well? For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.
